52 AMAZING THINGS THAT BECAME TRUE OF YOU THE MOMENT YOU TRUSTED CHRIST

STEPHEN KUHN

CHRIST

New York Boston Nashville

All emphasis (italics) in Scripture verses has been added by the author.

FaithWords Edition

Copyright © 2015 by Stephen Kuhn

Cover design by Jody Waldrup. Cover copyright © 2017 by Hachette Book Group, Inc.

Hachette Book Group supports the right to free expression and the value of copyright. The purpose of copyright is to encourage writers and artists to produce the creative works that enrich our culture.

The scanning, uploading, and distribution of this book without permission is a theft of the author's intellectual property. If you would like permission to use material from the book (other than for review purposes), please contact permissions@hbgusa.com. Thank you for your support of the author's rights.

FaithWords
Hachette Book Group
1290 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10104
faithwords.com
twitter.com/faithwords

Originally published in 2015 by Belt of Truth Books in the United States. First FaithWords Edition: April 2017

FaithWords is a division of Hachette Book Group, Inc. The FaithWords name and logo are trademarks of Hachette Book Group, Inc.

The publisher is not responsible for websites (or their content) that are not owned by the publisher.

The Hachette Speakers Bureau provides a wide range of authors for speaking events. To find out more, go to www.hachettespeakersbureau.com or call (866) 376-6591.

Unless otherwise indicated, all Scriptures are from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation, copyright © 1996. Used by permission of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc., Wheaton, Illinois 60189. All rights reserved.

Scriptures noted (NIV) are taken from the HOLY BIBLE: NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION*. Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984 by International Bible Society. Used by permission of Zondervan Publishing House. All rights reserved.

Scriptures noted (NASB) are taken from the New American Standard Bible*, Copyright © 1960, 1962, 1963, 1968, 1972, 1975, 1977, 1995 by The Lockman Foundation.

Used by permission.

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data has been applied for.

ISBNs: 978-1-4789-7073-6 (paper over board), 978-1-4789-7074-3 (ebook)

Printed in the United States of America

LSC-C

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

In memory of Paul Gossard.

You showed me what it looks like to trust God even in the midst of adversity.

You will be missed, my friend.

Contents

	Introduction: Who Do You Think You Are?	000
1.	Your Sins Are Forgiven	000
2.	You Are Right with God	000
3.	You Are Loved with an Everlasting Love	000
4.	You Are a New Creation	000
5.	You Have Become a Child of God	000
6.	You Can Call God "Abba"	000
7.	You Have Been Set Free from All Condemnation	000
8.	You Have Been Personally Chosen by God	000
9.	You Will Never Be Separated from God's Love	000
10.	You Became God's Masterpiece	000
11.	You Are Welcome in God's Presence	000
12.	You Have Been Given Every Spiritual Blessing	000
13.	You Became Part of God's Royal Priesthood	000
14.	You Have Received Wisdom from God	000
15.	You Were Joined to the Lord	000
16.	You Are No Longer a Slave—You Are a
	Friend of Jesus	000
17.	You Have Been Adopted by God	000

viii Contents

18. You Will Never Be Abandoned by God	000
19. You Have Been Washed Clean	000
20. You Have Been Given the Confidence to Be Bold	000
21. You Are Delighted in by God	000
22. You Have the Holy Spirit Living in You	000
23. You Have Become a Member of Christ's Body	000
24. You Have Been Cleansed and Made Holy	000
25. You Have the Ability to Be Thankful in
All Circumstances	000
26. You Have Become an Ambassador of Reconciliation	000
27. Your Sin Debt Was Paid in Full by Jesus	000
28. You Have Been Seated in the Heavenly Realms	000
29. You Have Been Rescued from Darkness	000
30. You Have Been Given the Incomparable
Riches of God's Grace	000
31. You Have Been Filled with God's Light	000
32. You Have Been Set Free from Fear	000
33. You Have Received Power, Love, and
Self-Discipline	000
34. You Have Been Brought Near to God	000
35. You Became a Citizen of Heaven	000
36. You Can Now Do Everything God Calls
You to Do	000
37. You Have Received All the Riches You Need	000

Contents ix

38. You Have Been Set Free from the Law	000
39. You Have Been Made Complete	000
40. Your Roots Have Been Planted in Fertile Soil	000
41. You Have Been Identified as God's Own	000
42. You Have Been Given Assurance that You
Will Rise from the Dead	000
43. You Have Received the Gifts of Faith	000
44. Your Value Has Been Confirmed by God	000
45. You Have Received the Promise of Life	000
46. You Have Been Granted Full Access to God	000
47. You Have Been Given Assurance of
Eternity in Heaven	000
48. You Have Been Chosen to Bear Fruit	000
49. You Have Been Made Dead to Sin	000
50. You Can No Longer Be Touched by the Evil One	000
51. You Have a Secure Future	000
52. You Are an Heir to God's Glory	000
Conclusion: What's the Point of All This?	000
Notes	000

Introduction

Who Do You Think You Are?

/ho are you? If you're anything like most people, your first response to that question is probably your job title. After that, you may list off your age, how many kids you have, or perhaps even your hobbies. If I'd been asked that question a few years back, I would have answered, "I am a graphic designer." This is true, but it's not really who I am—it's just what I do to pay the bills. I might also have told you that I am a dad to two of the coolest (and cutest) girls in the world, I'm husband to a wonderful and beautiful wife, I like being in the mountains, and I love bacon almost as much as I love air. Here's the deal, though—these things may describe me, but they don't define me. In order to figure out what defines you—your true identity—you need to understand who your Creator says you are. After all, He's the one who made you, so He is the only one with the authority to tell you what is true about you.

Who God Says You Are

As far as God is concerned, there are only two possible identities for every man, woman, and child alive today. You are either "in Adam"—the default state of all humans at birth—or, if you've trusted Jesus, you are "in Christ." You must be one or the other; you cannot be both. The most important thing to understand with regard to discovering what is true about you is understanding which camp you belong to.

You are no longer "in Adam"

The moment Adam chose to turn away from God, the cancer of sin entered into the human race and changed the default identity of everyone. Since that day, every one of us has been born physically alive but spiritually dead:

When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned. (Romans 5:12)

Our identity at birth is now "in Adam," which means we're all born with a sin nature.

If you're a parent, it shouldn't be too hard to understand this. Unless your name is Mary, your sweet little kiddo didn't need to be taught how to sin. It's in their nature from day one to be selfish, to lie to you, to yell "NO!" when asked to do something they don't want to do. Did you ever sit down and have a conversation with Junior discussing the benefits of dishonesty and how manipulation can be used for his gain? Of course not. Any child knows these things because they're born with a sin nature.

As long as your identity remains "in Adam," you are separated from God because of this sin nature within you. You are spiritually dead. You can do all sorts of good things here on earth, but ultimately none of them will matter in eternity because they will be done for your own benefit and not for God's glory. You are also forced to live your life, fight your temptations, and manage your pain using your own power. You're on your own. This does not mean God is not actively pursuing you while you remain "in Adam" (He certainly is), but ultimately you will need to reach out to Him and accept His help.

Don't be discouraged by this, though. If you are reading this book, there's a good chance your identity is no longer "in Adam." Why? Because the moment you placed your hope and trust in Jesus, your identity switched to "in Christ," and this separation no longer describes you!

You are "in Christ"

Just as everyone is born "in Adam," everyone is also given the opportunity to be born again "in Christ." The moment you place your hope and trust in Jesus to rescue you and set you free from your sinful nature, you are reborn with a new nature. Your identity is now "in Christ." This isn't a future reality that you must strive to achieve; it's bestowed upon you instantly. In other words, it's already done. Period. All that's left for you to do is believe it.

Chances are, you have a pretty good understanding that being "in Christ" means you are now reconciled to God. Even if you haven't spent much time in church, you're probably still familiar with John 3:16:

This is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)

When we believe in Christ, we receive eternal life in heaven with God. Most churches do a wonderful job of preaching this central truth of salvation. What is sometimes missed, though, is the truth that this life "in Christ" is available to us right now! If we understand the Gospel as merely the promise of eternal life after death, we remain stuck trying to live life here on earth in our own power—living as if we are still "in Adam." We miss the reality that God has promised us His life (and all the benefits that come with it) today. It begins the moment our identity changes from "in Adam" to "in Christ."

Discovering What Is True About You Now That You Are in Christ

Throughout Scripture you will find many verses describing how you were changed the moment you placed your faith in Christ.

In this book, I've focused on 52 of these passages to help you understand more deeply what these truths mean for you personally. Some of these descriptions of who you are may not feel true about you, but I encourage you to trust and believe that they are true about you—because all Scripture is true, whether it feels like it is or not. The more you choose to trust them, the more your feelings will begin to align with Scripture.

Meditating on what God says is true about me has been deeply transformational in my life. It has been one of the key practices that set me free from addiction, freed me to love others more fully, and finally made my relationship with God feel real and intimate rather than merely ritualistic. For that reason, I believe this little book can have an equally large impact on your life as well.

So, let's find out who you really are...

Your Sins Are Forgiven

In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace.

EPHESIANS 1:7, NASB

One of my favorite weekend activities growing up was riding my bike to the local arcade and blowing my hard-earned paper route money on video games.

We had a few different arcades in town, but my favorite was the huge one inside the mall. This arcade was the first place to play the latest games, and it was the place you went to test your joystick skills against the best players in town.

But as much as I enjoyed beating other kids at Street Fighter II, my favorite activity was filling my pockets with prize tickets from the carnival-style games. I'd dump quarter after quarter into Skee-Ball, the creepy shoot-out-the-clown's-teeth-with-a-water-gun game, and of course, Whac-A-Mole.

The better you did at these games, the more tickets you earned. And the more tickets you earned, the more stuff you could buy from the prize counter.

These prizes ranged from single-ticket items like stickers and tattoos all the way up to a full-on Sega Genesis console for some ridiculously huge quantity.

But what would have happened if I went to the counter and attempted to redeem real money for the Sega Genesis? I'd probably be told to come back when I had enough tickets—the only currency they accepted there.

In a lot of ways, we do the same thing when we look at the junk in our lives and attempt to overcome it by being a better person. We look at the debt of sin we've accrued and hope that by going to church, doing good works, or being a "nice enough person," we can tilt the scale back in our favor.

But that's not how forgiveness works in God's eyes. You may as well be trying to buy your way into heaven with arcade tickets.

The truth is, the only currency that can pay for your forgiveness is the blood of Jesus. It's His blood that has the power to redeem you and provides forgiveness for your sins—not your ability to be a good person.

This is great news, because once you realize your good behavior has nothing to do with you earning forgiveness, you can rest assured that bad behavior can never cause you to lose it.

Thankfully, God doesn't dole out His forgiveness the way an arcade game distributes tickets—in small batches and only if you win. He offers it to you solely as a gift of His grace.

Furthermore, He forgave all your sins the moment you put your trust in Christ.

52 Amazing Things...

You've been fully forgiven. You've been fully redeemed. Your debt has been paid.

So now, instead of trying to earn enough tickets to get to heaven by playing Whac-A-Mole with your sin, you can relax and join Jesus over at the air hockey table—knowing that even if you lose, you will still be loved unconditionally, forgiven completely, and accepted fully.

You Are Right with God

Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us.

ROMANS 5:1

When the apostle Paul penned this verse, he had just finished writing an entire chapter explaining how Abraham was saved by his faith, not by his good deeds.

This must have been quite shocking to the original recipients of the letter because many of the Christians in Rome had grown up in the Jewish tradition. They saw Abraham as the father of their religion, which was based heavily upon following the rules to maintain a right standing with God.

But now Paul is telling them it wasn't actually Abraham's ability to be a good rule follower that saved him—it was his faith. Abraham trusted God, and that's the only reason God counted him as righteous.

Paul may as well have said up was down and down was up. He could have stopped there, leaving Romans 4 as an interesting biographical lesson on the life of Abraham, but thankfully Paul continued on to write the verse we're looking at today (and likely stunning his readers even more).

Stephen Kuhn

Paul wanted to make sure his readers knew that all these things he just told them about Abraham are also true for every-one whose faith has been placed in Christ. That includes you and me today.

In the same way Abraham's deeds had nothing to do with his righteousness, your deeds have no bearing on your righteousness either. Simply put, you can't earn God's acceptance through behavior.

At first glance, the idea that you could never do enough good to earn God's acceptance sounds like bad news, but actually it's wonderful news.

Think of it this way: If God's acceptance depended on your good works, how much good would you have to do to know that you'd earned it? At a minimum, you would need to do enough to compensate for your mistakes, right? And then, every time you messed up, you would have to do more good deeds to get back to the baseline.

I don't know about you, but that sounds exhausting. Plus, you would never know for sure whether you were doing enough, so you would always doubt God's acceptance of you.

But look once again at what Paul tells us in this verse. He makes it clear that we have been made right with God by faith.

Have been... Past tense. It's a done deal.

The righteousness you received had nothing to do with your good works then, and it still doesn't today.

By trusting that you have already been made right with God, it will free you from the endless treadmill of trying to earn your own righteousness.

And that, my friend, will lead you to tremendous peace.